FORTY-TWO COUNTIES

In Indiana Limit Saloons to One For Each Thousand Population

Forty-two Indiana counties have availed themselves of the privilege, under the Proctor regulation law, of raising the limitation of saloons to one for each 1,000 population. Seventeen counties have fixed the unit at one for each 500 population. Three have decided that they shall have one saloon for each 800 persons and one has fixed the limit at a saloon for each 750.

The counties are taking prompt advantage of the law. It is said that the Anti Saloon League is advising the various Boards of Commissioners to fix the limitation at one for each 1,000 persons.

The League is also urging its followers to demand the limit in raising the license. City Councils are being urged to make the license $500 for cities under first and second class. There is a demand also for a $700 license, which is permissible under the law.

There are indications, however, that most of the cities will make the license as high as possible under the law.

Passes Away This Morning After a Long Illness

Mrs. Wills Mefford Fyffe died this morning at 2:45 at the home of her sister, Mrs. Belle Brady, in Sutton street, after a protracted illness with tuberculosis of the bowels, age 73.

She was a daughter of Joseph Mefford and was a granddaughter of John Mefford, one of Mason county's pioneers. She was born at the Mefford homestead in May, 1838.

She was preceded to the grave by her husband, Colonel James P. Fyffe, 47 years ago.

She is survived by one son, J. P. Fyffe, Chief of Police of Panama, and two sisters, Mrs. Belle M. Brady of this city and Miss Ada Mefford of Azusa, Cal.

The funeral will take place from her late home in Sutton street, with service by Rev. J. M. Haymore of the First Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a devout member.

Interment in Georgetown, Ohio, Cemetery.

Time of funeral will be announced tomorrow.

Daugherty, J. P. Baner, Mike Brown, T. M. Russell, John Leonard, James Sommers, James E. Kirwin, C. B. Matthews, W. Houston Hall and M. J. Flarity.

The Directors went into the election of officers and elected James W. Fitzgerald, President, and P. D. Wells, Secretary and Treasurer.

After the organization of the Board, the President appointed an Executive Committee for the management of the local club and its affairs, composed of the following: J. P. Baner, Sherman Arn, James Sommers, P. D. Wells, W. Houston Hall.

NEW GOODS

Are arriving daily—shipments just received add beautiful Suits, Coats and Dresses to the good-sized collection already here. Whatever else the spring wardrobe may contain, one thing is decided by most women—she must have a tailored suit to bear the brunt of daily wear. You cannot find a better combination of correct cut, good tailoring, pretty weaves and colors, stylish designs and inexpensive prices than in our $12½ to $22½ Suits. Handsomer Suits up to $40. There is quality in every line.

Serge Coats $8½ to $20

Novel and exclusive styles from high-class New York designers in a satisfactory range of colors. Coats of double utility—to protect a light gown in the evening and to serve for day wear equally well. In buying one of these stylish Coats you not only provide yourself with a spring wrap but with one for cool summer evenings and for weeks of service in the fall.

The Corset

Not the gown makes the figure. No matter how simple and inexpensive a Woman's gown, it will have that indefinable air of style and distinction if worn over a carefully fitted corset. Have you ever tried the Warner or Redfern Corsets? Cut on lines carefully designed for American figures. Corset fittings given careful attention without extra charge. Warner's 50c to $3. Redfern's $3 to $6.

In New York City, among other interesting and curious exhibits, there are 10,000 husbands who are supported by their wives.

Sick? No, tired—born
so. About half of them
married for money, expecting to live off their wives, and make no bones about it. The other half gradually discovered that their wives could support them—would, if they had to—and proceeded to let 'em do it.

Why don't the wives leave them? That's the strange part of it. They denounce them as worthless trash, then proceed to scrub floors and take in washing to keep them in beer and tobacco.

Lies in the fact that the world is made up of all sorts and conditions. The next time you want a new suit please construction and personality unlike any one else. You are yourself. It is for this reason that you must have your suit

"HIDING FROM GOD"
Pastor's Subject Yesterday, and the Meeting at the Third Street M. E. Church Continues

The revival services at the Third Street M. E. Church yesterday were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Overley, who preached two great evangelistic sermons. Large congregations were present at every service, the evening congregation being the largest since the meetings began. The evening sermon on "Hiding From God" was a masterful appeal to sinners in and out of the Church.

There was one addition to the Church at the evening service, a splendid young man from the Sunday-school.

This is expected to be the banner week in the revival. Rev. A. P. Smith will return today and will preach the Gospel in his intensely earnest and forcible manner every evening this week and next Sunday.

A special feature planned for next Sunday is a great mass meeting for men in the afternoon.

Mrs. Lottie Sproemberg of Commerce street, whose serious illness was noted in Saturday LEDGER, was reported this morning to be slightly improved. Mrs. Wylie of Ripley, O., were here yesterday in consultation with Dr. W. S. Yazell regarding her case.

A WIFE'S
Trivial Remark Leads To the Identification of Her Dead Husband

The mangled body of the unknown man found on the C. and O. track East of Limestone street on the morning of Sunday, February 26th, and after being retained in the Undertaking rooms of Coughlin & Co. for eleven days and buried last Thursday in the Potter's Field, has been unquestionably identified as being that of Mr. Hal Yarnall of the East End, who has been missing since that date.

Coroner Slack has been persistent and indefatigable in an effort to establish the man's identity, and it was through a trivial and jesting remark, innocently indulged in, by Mrs. Hal Yarnall in converse with an East End neighbor Saturday, that resulted in the mystery being solved.

Yesterday the Coroner visited the home of the bereaved wife and carried with him the articles found on the dead man's person, all of which she recognized, and particularly the hat band with monogram H. Y., which she had worked with her own hands.

His wearing apparel and figures tattooed on his arm were described and accorded with those of her husband.

The identity being satisfactory and complete the body will be exhumed today by the relatives and buried in a grave in the Mayville Cemetery.

Death of C. C. Brown

Mr. Charles C. Brown, at one time well known in Maysville and Aberdeen, and who married Miss Nanette Power, the lovely daughter of the late Captain J. C. Power of Aberdeen, died Saturday morning at his home in Spokane, Wash., aged about 65 years.

Besides his excellent wife, he leaves three children, Powers and Charles, who are in business at Spokane, and Mrs. Gay V. Williams of Portsmouth.

Mean of Him.

"So the girl who turned you down to be married tomorrow? Who is the happy man?"
"I am."
"Oh, then you have made up?"
"No, we have not. Didn't I say I was the happy man?"

Domestic Infelicity

J. M. Thomas, residing in Dietrich's Lane, was arrested Saturday night about 10 o'clock and locked up, charged with shooting at his brother-in-law. He was later released on bond. Thomas, apparently, is a fairly good citizen, and has been employed at the Maysville Foundry and Machine Works for a number of years. His domestic life, as he himself admits, has not been a happy one, but rather an exceedingly tempestuous one, and when he returned home Saturday night a wrangle arose and in the tumult between himself and his brother-in-law, in which Thomas seems to have been the under dog in the scrimmage, he drew his revolver and fired several shots at his adversaries, who made a hasty retreat and escaped without receiving bodily damage. The matter will be sifted out in the Police Court this afternoon.

20% UNDERFEED INVESTMENT

Most heating systems are an actual drag on the domestic treasury. If you want to enjoy actual every-winter dividends, tear out your old glutinous coal-burner, with its uneven heat and hard-to-satisfy appetite for fuel. Put in a

PECK-WILLIAMSON UNDERFEED FURNACE OR BOILER

Choose the system you like best—warm air, steam or hot water. Cheap—stock in the Underfeed yields as much clean, even heat as most expensive grades, which ordinary heating plants require. All the fire is on top and has to eat down into the fresh coal against the draft. Combustion is slow and perfect, and smoke, soot and gases are entirely eliminated. This enables Underfeed furnace and boiler users to SAVE 1/2 TO 3/4 OF COAL BILLS.

This saving represents a 20% dividend on the investment for this modern system of heating. Figure it out. It won't take long to get your money back. The Underfeed adds to this saving the rental value of any building.

Write today for free booklet on Underfeed Warm Air, Steam and Hot Water Heating Systems. Our representative will be glad to call any time and make you a detailed proposition.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from a reputable physician, as the damage they will do is too great to the good you can possibly derive from them.
